CIRCA PINTIG is holding auditions!

CIRCA Pintig, the Chicago-based community theater company is looking for actors and singers (males and females, ages 16-50) as well as production crew for its upcoming musical play “Game of Trolls: Reimagined.” Written by Liza Magtoto, the play was originally staged by the Philippine Educational Theater Association (PETA) and is now adapted into the Filipino American context. It tells the story of Heck, a troll whose lack of attachment to any belief makes him the perfect keyboard warrior for Bimbam, the manager of a ‘call center’ that runs an online pro-martial law campaign. Heck uses his trolling skills to unleash callous words against anyone who critiques the horrors of martial law. Ghosts of Martial law victims haunt him from the internet cloud as the fear of their stories being erased from history lurks in the chaotic world of digital media. The encounter forces him to reflect on his own beliefs and his relationship with his mother, a former Martial Law activist. Playdates scheduled for October 26-28 and November 2-4 and 9-11.

Audition dates are August 23, Thursday @6-8pm, August 25, Saturday and August 26 Sunday @ 2-5pm at the Hana Center, 4300 N. California Ave. PLEASE prepare a song (32 bars) and a short monologue (2-3 minutes, comedic or dramatic). Auditionees will also be asked to read short excerpts from the actual script. To reserve a spot, please call Louie (312-451-6974) or send an email to: pascasio428@gmail.com

We also welcome those who are interested to volunteer in backstage and theater production work. Visit us at www.circapintig.com or through Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/circapintigtheatre/>
